INTRODUCTION

The compilation of this volume began because the writer wished to find the will of her great, great grandfather. The original will was destroyed when the courthouse in Franklin County, Mississippi, burned during the Reconstruction period.

As the work progressed, however, and it became more and more apparent that the files of the Mississippi High Court of Errors and Appeals contained a gold mine of names, dates, family connections and migrations of Pioneer Mississippians, self-interest diminished and the backbreaking, eye-straining work became a thrilling, exciting adventure.

As shown by the County History Chart incorporated in this book, many county records were destroyed in courthouse fires and except for the data contained in the files of the High Court sent up from the Probate Courts of these counties, there is nothing left of these early records. The wills included in this volume, filed with the High Court, are copies of the original wills and, in many instances, constitute the only existing evidence of family connections and relationships.

The cases herein indexed and abstracted pertain to will, administration, property settlement, guardianship, and divorce cases. Many cases filed with the High Court are missing. In some instances lawyers removed the files and did not return them; some were lost in moving the file cases from one place to another and possibly some fell into such a state of decay that they were discarded. As is the case with all old papers, the ink has dimmed, the penmanship is strange and sometimes very poor, names are misspelled or spelled in two or more ways, but for the most part they are in fair shape.

Among the High Court Judges of the period covered by this book were: William B. Shields, John P. Hampton, Powhatan Ellis, Joshua G. Clarke, Walter Leake, Louis Winston, Bela Metcalfe, Richard Stockton, Edward Turner, Joshua Child, Isaac Caldwell, John Black, John Winchester, William B. Griffith, Harry Cage, Isaac R. Nicholson, Alexander Montgomery, William L. Sharkey, George W. Smyth, Eli Huston, Cotesworth P. Smith, Daniel W. Wright, James F. Trotter, P. Rutillius R. Pray, Reuben Davis, Alexander M. Clayton, J. S. B. Thatcher, Collin S. Tarpley, William Yerger, Ephraim S. Fisher, Alexander H. Handy, and William L. Harris.

Prominently mentioned in the records are the following Probate Judges: Charles Wheaton, John Richards, William Doak, Halsey Townsend, P. A. Vandorn, John Phillips, John Cameron, Thos. Bilbo, Alexander McLeod, John McGuffie, Duncan McLaurin, Wm. P. Gadberry, Barnabus Allen, Jacob Remson Holmes, G. T. Lightfoot, A. M. Nelson, M. H. Peyton, Thomas Alexander Magee, J. W. Wilder, L. Lewis, Murdock McDonald, William K. Magee, H. Murray Quin, W. W. Whitehead, Richard M. Neilson, James A. Maxwell, Jackson Millsaps, Francis Gildart, and James A. Campbell.

Some "High Court Lawyers" of distinction of this period were: George Poindexter, Seargent S. Prentiss, Joseph Dunbar Shields, John A. Cheatham, Amos Whiting, William Dangerfield, Robert McGill, John Stafford, Enoch M. Lowe, John Lowry, Charles Clark (Governor of Mississippi 1863-1865), Marston H. Harper, Luther Stone, Oliver B. Hayes, Wiley Pope Harris, Hiram Cassidy, Sr., and Benjamin King.

We wish to acknowledge, with gratitude, the splendid work done with these old records by the Historical Records Survey of the Works Progress Administration. Under the supervision of Dr. W. D. McCain, Director of Mississippi's

Department of Archives and History, the workers recovered records from barrels and boxes scattered here and there in the Capitol Building. They were sorted, wrapped and tied securely, and each case was numbered and filed in proper order in steel filing cases. These records are now in the vaults of the Department of Archives and History in Jackson, Mississippi.

My sincere thanks go to Dr. W. D. McCain and his fellow workers in the Department of Archives and History and to Mr. C. S. Hudspeth for the many courtesies shown me during the preparation of this volume; also to Mrs. Bobbye Puryear who has rendered invaluable service in typing the manuscript for the printers.

We shall feel generously repaid for our efforts if only one person is made happy by finding a lost ancestor within the pages of this book. It is our fervent hope, however, that it will provide many missing links for many people, and will be a fore-runner of other volumes of genealogical records of the early families of my beloved State of Mississippi.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF RICHARD BUTLER

(State of Louisiana)

In the name of God Amen, I Richard Butler, of the State of Louisiana in perfect health and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say—First I do ordain that immediately after my decease, or as soon there after as it may be convenient and reasonable all my debts due and owing by me shall be fully paid and discharged.

Item I give devise and bequeath unto my true and lawful wife Margaret Butler the one half of my estate, real and personal, movable and immovable within the State of Louisiana to have and to hold the same to her and her heirs forever provided nevertheless that it is not intended to vest in my said wife and her heirs the property and estate by me covenanted and agreed to be conveyed to my brother in law Samuel McCutcheon of the said State. So as to defeat the true meaning and intention of the said covenant and agreement and my said wife and the devisees herein after named are enjoined to carry the same into effect.

Item I give devise and bequeath unto my said wife the one third of all my real estate situated and being in the Mississippi Territory to have and to hold the same during her natural life and I give and bequeath one half of my personal property within the Mississippi Territory aforesaid to my said wife Margaret Butler to be enjoined by her forever. It is my particular request that the Executors hereinafter named are most strenuously desired to leave nothing undone to render the future days of my beloved wife happy and independent. I feel myself bound from every principle and from every inclination that this should be strictly adhered to. She has all my heart and has been to me a most faithful wife and partner and the tenderest of friends.

Item I give devise and bequeath all the rest and residue and remainder of my estate property and effects to my sisters Rebecca McCutcheon and Harriet Hooke to have and to hold the same equally divided between them for and during their natural lives.

Item Upon the death of the said Rebecca McCutcheon and the said Harriet Hooke or either of them I do give devise and bequeath the share or shares which the said decedant or decedants shall have possession as aforesaid or which is by the last above devise and bequeath intended she or they should possess to the child or children of the said Rebecca McCutcheon and Harriet Hooke or either of them to be equally divided between the said children and in case of the death of either of said children previous to marriage and without issue then his or her share to be equally divided among the surviving children as aforesaid, or in case only one child as aforesaid should survive then the share or shares above mentioned and the estate and property shall vest and remain in the said child and his or her heirs forever.

Item I give and bequeath unto the persons hereinafter named the following legacies to the payment of which the aforesaid devisees and legatees shall contribute in an equal proportion that is to say To my beloved Mother, Jane Butler, I bequeath the annual sum of One Thousand Dollars the same to be paid to her yearly and every year during the term of her natural life. To the son of my much esteemed friend, Abner L. Duncan, viz, John Nicholas Duncan, I bequeath the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars to be appropriated toward giving him a liberal education to be paid into the hands of his father or guardian appointed by him in three annual installments, the first to commence when the said John Nicholas Duncan shall be fourteen years old. To my faithful servant negro George I bequeath his freedom all my personal clothing and five hundred dollars to be paid to him out of the first proceeds of my estate after paying my legal debts. This I consider a debt of gratitude for his affectionate and honest conduct and I take into view the many curses I have given him often very improperly.

I give and bequeath my new pistols made by Egg of London to my worth friend, James Williams Esq. of Louisiana. To Richard Butler Price, son of Chancelor Price Esq of Philadelphia I do ordain and direct that he shall receive at the expense of my estate a complete and liberal education such a one as will qualify him for any one of the learned professions this to be done within the United States education to be chargeable to my estate from and after his twelfth year is completed. When his studies are finished and he graduated I ordain a thousand dollars to be paid him for the purchase of a library. To my brother William Butler I give and bequeath an annuity of the sum of Eight Hundred Dollars and payable quarterly. To my worthy friend Thomas Butler of Louisiana I leave my best riding horse and equipage that is a saddle bridle swords pistols and all arms belonging to me and I further give and bequeath to the said Thomas Butler all my books which my wife Margaret Butler may not desire to keep as part of her library.

To my good friend Abner L. Duncan I give and bequeath my superb Rosekell gold watch and its appendages. To my executors hereinafter named I leave and bequeath a mourning ring and a full suit of mourning to each of them.

I think it necessary to state to my brothers in law that it was originally my intention to make them my executors in conjunction with my wife but being well aware of the difficulties which generally attend any division of property and wishing to avoid and obviate all contention and strife where brotherly love and friendship ought solely to exist I have conceived it my duty and more conducive to their happiness to appoint other friends to this office wherefore I now ordain and make my wife Margaret Butler, the Honorable Thomas Butler and Abner Lawson Duncan all of the State of Louisiana Executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have unto put my hand this eighteenth day of June, in the Year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fourteen at the City of New Orleans in the State of Louisiana.

So as not to sell or encumber their shares of property left them by me John and Andrew I leave in charge and under the directions of my executors and if they should deem it advisable to bring them home from school in Tennessee where they now are, my wish is that they should place them in some active employment and not permit them to remain at home in idleness. My youngest son Abram I leave in charge of and under the directions of my wife Ann B. Green in all respects both as to person and property.

ABNER SHOLAR'S WILL

I, Abner Sholar of the County of Madison and State of Mississippi being in a very infirm state of health and sensible to my liability to sudden death at the same time being in my own apprehension of sound mind do judge it best to make and accordingly do make this my last Will and testament.

It is my will that all my Just debts be paid and discharged by Executors hereinafter named and appointed, out of my estate as soon as conveniently may be after my decease. In order that my debts be paid off as speedily as possible it is my will that all my negroes and other personal property (now on the plantation where I reside) remain where they are and to be worked under the control and management of my Executors until all my debts shall be paid off and discharged. From the proceeds arising from the sale of the crops or other wise and that none of the negroes nor any of the property be removed from said plantation until there shall be a sale of my real estate and personal property not bequeathed or otherwise disposed of according to requisitions of this my Will as hereinafter directed and required. I give devise and dispose of all my Estate both real and personal in the following manner 1St I give devise and bequeath unto my two sons Levi Sholer and Charles Sholar two thirds of my whole estate both real and personal to their own proper use and benefit forever, each son taking share and share alike. It is my will that part of the property to constitute the shares and portions herein devised and bequeathed to my two sons shall consist of the following slaves viz Elijah, Charles his wife Mary and their children Martha, Frank, Eneas, Sam, Pamelia and the children of Martha viz Bowling, Mary Alicia and Evelina and their increase and if the valuation of said above named twelve negroes and there increase should be more than two thirds of the whole of my estate (the manner of which valuation is hereinafter pointed out)

Then in that case my two sons shall equally contribute to make up the other third of my Estate herein bequeathed to my beloved wife out of and from the sale of my Real Estate which is herein directed to be sold.

2nd I give and devise unto my beloved wife one third of my whole estate both real and personal to her own proper use and benefit forever.

In consideration of her being the property of my wife at the time of our intermarriage I give and bequeath Lenilda and her child and likewise Edna to her own proper use and benefit forever. Provided however that the said two women and child are not to be considered a specific bequest to her independent of the one third of my estate already bequeathed and devised but the said negroes shall be valued in the same manner as directed for the valuation of my whole estate left unsold by my Executors and the valuation of said three negroes and their increase at their valuation shall be included in the apportionment of her third.

3rd It is my will that my beloved wife shall remain on my plantation where she now resides until the sale of my real estate as hereinafter directed and that she have the use of the house, furniture servants etc in the same manner as during my lifetime free from any change whatever.

4th It is my will if my Executors shall be compelled to sell any of my negroes to pay debts before the sale of my real estate that they shall sell my negro man Sam, Clarissa and her three children.

5th It is my will that so soon as all my debts are paid off and discharged or as soon as my executors shall deem beneficial for the interest of all persons interested in the distribution of my Estate they shall sell all my real estate and other property not specifically bequeathed herein and cause a final division partition and apportionment according to the requisitions bequests and devises herein before recited. In order to prevent any doubts in the minds of my Executors as to the manner in which my Estate shall be divided according to the bequests and devises herein named I will suggest to them that the plan I conceive less likely to create any misunderstanding in the discharge of their duty viz when all my debts shall have been fully paid off my Executor shall apply to the Probate Court of Madison County in State aforesaid for an order of division according to the directions of this my Will, suggesting at the same time the names of five disinterested freeholders of said County who shall be approved by the court then they shall under the directions of this my will and with my Executors proceed to value the whole of my estate not sold by my Executors including the negroes herein devised to my wife and two sons and after such valuation the said commissioners shall assign and apportion so much of the proceeds of the sale of my real and personal estate as shall be sufficient to make two thirds of the valuation of my whole estate including the negroes hereinafter bequeathed to them at their valuation, Provided that the negroes do not amount to two thirds of the valuation of my whole Estate and in case the said negroes do amount to that much then the said commissioners shall assign and allot to them the said negroes and no more and after the assignment of the two thirds as aforesaid to my two sons- then the said commissioners shall proceed to divide by valuation the property herein devised and bequeathed to my two sons giving to each son share and share alike until the same shall be divided equally between them- and the said commissioners shall in like manner proceed and assign to my beloved wife so much of the property or money as the case may be sufficient to make the one third of my estate as herein before bequeathed and devised to her at the same time assigning to her the said Lenilda her child and Edna at their valuation she having the power of choosing what property she wishes to make up her portion not disposed of or herein bequeathed.

And it is my will that my son Levi shall be the guardian of my son Charles and his property, and is hereby appointed and constituted his guardian until he arrive at the age of twenty one years and so soon as the property of my estate is divided and my son Levi shall take out letters of guardianship from some Probate Court of this State of the person and property of my son Charles, first having given bond and security as the law directs then the said commissioners with the other Executors shall deliver the said and portion allotted by them to my son into the hands of the Guardian so appointed. And after the division of my Estate according to instructions herein specified the said commissioners shall likewise deliver and pay over to my wife or her heirs or representatives in case she dies before the division as aforesaid the one third herein devised and bequeathed to her. And likewise the said Commissioners shall pay over and deliver into the hands of my son and Executor Levi his third portion of my estate herein bequeathed and devised to him. And I hereby nominate constitute and appoint my son Levi Sholar and my friend Charles Smith of Madison County jointly and severally the Executors of this my last will and testament and so that in the case of the death of one of them the survivor shall be sole Executor of this my last will and testament and I give such survivor all the power and direction I have given my said Executors. I also give to each of them all the power and repose in each of them all and every trust I have given them jointly provided and so far as he who shall act have the consent of the other Executor. In witness whereof I have on the fifth day of July in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty seven in seven leaves or sheets of paper set my hand and seal in the manner following (that is to say) to the first six sheets I have set my hand and to the seventh and last thereof I have subscribed my name and set my seal.
